

Chat transcript

10:02:20 From Oana (she, her) Ciobanasu to Everyone:

Welcome to this webinar, which will be fully recorded and made available after the event.
Your camera and microphone will remain switched off during the speakers' presentations.
This will be changed for the second part of the session and you will be able to contribute to the discussion questions.

If you wish to ask a question to a speaker, please post in the Q&A function and not into the chat, these can then be easily picked out by the chair. Please note that we may not be able to answer all questions.

For general chat / session commentary please use the 'Chat' function, remember to select to send to 'everyone' before submitting.

10:02:32 From Oana (she, her) Ciobanasu to Everyone:

This event is available live in both English and Welsh. As the default is set to English, you do not need to make any changes if you wish to listen to the event in English.

If you would like to listen to the event in Welsh, please click on the Globe icon below for Interpretation. Due to a technical issue with Zoom you will see 2 languages available, English and French, please select French which will allow you to listen to the event in Welsh.

If you are on twitter you can engage with us @civicuniversity #trulycivic

10:02:50 From Heliana Pacheco to Everyone:

Good morning, everyone!

10:05:04 From Alison McMillan to Everyone:

Can we have subtitles too

10:05:39 From Oana (she, her) Ciobanasu to Hosts and panellists:

Of course, you should be able to see those now Alison

10:09:09 From Kathryn Caine to Everyone:

Bore da o Fangor!

10:13:40 From Dr Rachel Hughes to Hosts and panellists:

Bore da o Gas-gwent. I believe that Unis were included in the Bill but obviously didn't make the Act. HEFCW has a duty under the Act, however.

10:24:17 From Sarah Harvey to Hosts and panellists:

This is the link to the Navigating the Storm animation that Nina highlighted -
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uFSsE2qOnuw&t=5s>

10:24:52 From Sarah Harvey to Everyone:

This is the link to the Navigating the Storm animation that Nina highlighted -
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uFSsE2qOnuw&t=5s>

10:32:43 From Lesley Meara to Everyone:

Agree strongly Ed - we all face these challenges.

10:35:43 From Heliana Pacheco to Everyone:

Exciting and inspiring work!

10:37:58 From Alison McMillan to Everyone:

An important aspect of future generations is the way we will live as a consequence of Global Warming, and how the day to day infrastructure would need to change. How can we implement this within the Civic mission?

10:45:04 From Sian Edwards to Everyone:

Cardiff University's Civic Mission <https://www.cardiff.ac.uk/community>

10:51:13 From Dr Rachel Hughes to Hosts and panellists:

Wrexham and Flintshire Public Services Boards' recently published Well-being Assessments have been framed around the four pillars of well-being - culture, society, economy, and environment. They also draw across the interconnections between the well-being pillars - taking a holistic approach to well-being. There was a recent paper published on Inequality in a Future Wales that we drew on in the Well-being Assessments. This includes a discussion and action around climate change. <https://www.futuregenerations.wales/wp-content/uploads/2021/11/Inequality-in-a-Future-Wales-full-report-ENGLISH-UPDATED.pdf>

11:08:57 From Iwan Williams to Everyone:

Bore da o Fangor / Good morning from Bangor! Great to see our Welsh Uni colleagues set out the context and situation in Wales, brilliant to hear about the work going on in Scotland. We have huge societal challenges in Wales, Scotland and elsewhere (ageing population, climate change, austerity and cost of living crisis, Brexit etc). With public service partners expected to do more with less, are there opportunities here for Universities to do more in the public sphere? And are attitudes/perceptions improving on both sides i.e. Uni staff recognising the added value of civic mission to their work, and the public acknowledging the role of Universities in improving their lives and communities?

11:09:18 From Louisa Wall to Everyone:

If you would like to contribute to the discussion, please select the raise hand function and we will adjust the settings to ensure you can also speak and be seen by all guests.

11:15:47 From joni.alexander@advance-he.ac.uk to Everyone:

Following on from Iwan's question around uni staff: How are institutions embedding civic mission into their operations? Thinking about how this plays into performance and individual professional development that staff work within, are there levers being used to incentivise staff to be part of the 'doing'?

11:22:49 From Lizzie Morgan, Sheffield Hallam to Everyone:

<https://civicuniversitynetwork.co.uk/fe-he-collaboration/>

11:23:14 From Lizzie Morgan, Sheffield Hallam to Everyone:

Link above for: *Going Further and Higher: How collaboration between colleges and universities can transform lives and places*

11:24:34 From Oana (she, her) Ciobanasu to Everyone:

Thanks Lizzie, you can also watch the FE/HE report launch event on demand:
<https://civicuniversitynetwork.co.uk/programme/fe-he-collaboration/>

11:28:49 From Clare Davies to Everyone:

Many thanks all, really helpful session. Diolch.

11:29:02 From Alison McMillan to Everyone:

thank you to all the speakers and people who asked questions

11:29:06 From Louisa Wall to Everyone:

Thank you for attending the session today.

The Civic University Network will be hosting a week of #TrulyCivic events, taking place online from 13th – 17th June 2022. Session details will be released in the coming weeks. Network newsletter subscribers will be sent a direct email invitation so look out for yours!

11:29:10 From Sian Edwards to Everyone:

Diolch o galon

11:29:18 From Sueli Brodin to Everyone:

Thank you!!

11:29:18 From Phil Lambert to Everyone:

thank you that was great.

11:29:27 From Niamh Byrne to Everyone:

Thank you

11:29:29 From Louisa Wall to Everyone:

You can also access a wide array of resources on the CUN website including outputs from previous webinars: <https://civicuniversitynetwork.co.uk/resources>

Make sure you are subscribed to the CUN newsletters to receive invites and booking links to all of our events and keep up with progress on this work: <https://bit.ly/3synMYh>

11:29:30 From Kathryn Caine to Everyone:

Diolch yn fawr iawn

11:29:43 From Iwan Williams to Everyone:

Diolch / Thanks!

11:29:48 From Berrin Yanikkaya to Hosts and panellists:

Thank you all!